

2014 RISING STARS

Adeel A. Mangi
Partner
Patterson Belknap
Webb & Tyler LLP

Adeel Mangi was the youngest associate to become a partner at Patterson Belknap Webb & Tyler when he was elected in 2010, 10 years after joining the firm as an associate. A high-stakes trial lawyer whose Fortune 500 clients include pharmaceutical giants Johnson & Johnson and AbbVie Inc., Adeel concentrates on complex commercial disputes and has experience in false advertising, pharmaceutical pricing and False Claims Act matters, intellectual property litigation, and class action defense.

Adeel has represented some 20 nationwide class actions and state cases relating to the average wholesale price of prescription drugs. Earlier this year, he helped secure a summary judgment on behalf of The Hershey Company in a multidistrict antitrust litigation alleging major chocolate manufacturers conspired to fix the price of chocolate in the United States.

Pro Bono/Civic Activity

Raised in Karachi, Pakistan, Adeel is a leader in New York's Muslim community and an advocate for human rights. He served on the board of directors for the Muslim Bar Association of New York from 2010 to 2013 and is seeking to return to the board with the bar group's next election. Adeel has played a key leadership role in the Muslim bar group's groundbreaking endorsement of same-sex marriage legislation in New York. He also serves on the private sector steering committee of the South Asian Bar Association of New York, and qualifies as a British barrister.

Adeel devotes much of his time to the Ali Hasan Mangi Memorial Trust, a family trust working to improve conditions in a Pakistan village, including new schools, a sanitation network, clean water access and vocational training for women.

'I enjoy the art of oral and trial advocacy, including having the opportunity to learn from great mentors and to explore new ideas through the resources of a major firm.'

In addition to representing a domestic violence victim referred by Sanctuary for Families, his other pro bono work includes winning a $2 million jury verdict on behalf of the City of New York related to fire damage to a public school and the representation of indigent asylum seekers.
