

Pro Bono

Simone M. Silva-Arrindell

Patterson's commitment to pro bono here in the New York City area is truly unparalleled.

Since arriving at the Firm in the fall of 2016, I've had the opportunity to work on a number of pro bono matters, from small administrative hearings to federal class action litigation.

The Firm dedicates time and resources to pro bono and partners with a number of organizations to offer legal services to those in need of representation.

Our pro bono clients are grateful that we are in their corner and that we are listening in helping them navigate these oftentimes complex legal proceedings.

Pro bono at Patterson also gives attorneys, particularly junior attorneys, an opportunity to develop their professional legal skills.

It's a rewarding experience for all: the clients, our partner organizations and also the attorneys here at the Firm.
