

Gizele Rubeiz

Associate

grubeiz@pbwt.com

212.336.2488

Gizele Rubeiz is an Associate in the firm's Litigation department. From 2019 to 2020, Ms. Rubeiz served as a law clerk to the Hon. Dora L. Irizarry, then-Chief Judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York. From 2017 to 2019, Ms. Rubeiz served as a law clerk to the Hon. Stewart D. Aaron of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. Prior to joining Patterson Belknap, Ms. Rubeiz was a litigation associate at a law firm in New York.

Representative Matters

Representing major pharmaceutical company in Lanham Act anti-counterfeiting trademark action against companies and individuals manufacturing, distributing, and laundering the illicit proceeds of counterfeit branded medications.

Representing major financial services banking institution in nationwide antitrust multi-district litigation.

Representing corporations in connection with investigations by state attorneys general.

Defended through trial AmLaw 100 law firm in connection with allegations of legal malpractice, resulting in favorable client outcome.

Represented medical device manufacturer in connection with breach of contract dispute.

Admissions

- New York

Education

- University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School (J.D., 2016)
 - Executive Editor, University of Pennsylvania Journal of Business Law
- Indiana University - Bloomington (B.S., magna cum laude, 2012)

Blog Posts: Commercial Disputes Digest

Patterson Belknap's Commercial Disputes Digest covers and analyzes developments related to practice and case law in high-stakes and complicated commercial disputes. Key developments from various state and federal court decisions are reviewed, including decisions handed down from the NY Commercial Division and Delaware Chancery Court. Our aim is to provide you with thoughtful and succinct analysis of today's most significant decisions and related legal trends. The digest is written by commercial litigators who have significant experience litigating commercial disputes throughout the country.

June 14, 2021

Defendant's Unsuccessful About-Face Results in $5 Million Judgment

Litigants arguing that their adversary should be judicially estopped from pursuing a particular position in litigation face a relatively high burden to invoke the doctrine successfully. Two recent decisions from Justice Borrok help illustrate the specific circumstances under which...

February 3, 2021

Commercial Division Rules Expanded to General Civil Practice in New York Effective February 1, 2021

Administrative Order 270/2020—which adopts certain Commercial Division Rules into the Uniform Civil Rules for the Supreme Court in New York—went into effect on February 1, 2021. [1] In signing this order, Chief Judge Marks described the Commercial Division...

Blog Posts: Data Security Law Blog

DataSecurityLaw.com is the firm's resource for the latest news, analysis, and thought leadership in the critical area of privacy and cybersecurity law. Patterson Belknap's Privacy and Data Security practice provides public and private enterprises, their leadership teams and boards with comprehensive services in this critical area. Our team of experienced litigators, corporate advisors and former federal and state prosecutors advises on a broad range of privacy and data protection matters including cyber preparedness and compliance, data breach response, special board and committee representation, internal investigations, and litigation.

November 7, 2023

Biden Administration Issues Executive Order Regarding Safety, Security, and Trustworthiness of AI

On October 30, 2023, the White House issued an Executive Order to address the growing innovations—and attendant concerns—regarding artificial intelligence ("AI"). The Executive Order is the first federal attempt to broadly address AI, but it certainly won't be the...