

Justin Zarembly

Associate

jszarembly@pbwt.com

Tel: 212-336-2194

Fax: 212-336-1266

Justin Zarembly is an Associate in the Firm's Tax-Exempt Organizations department where he represents a range of public charities and private foundations, including universities, cultural institutions, and other tax-exempt entities on a variety of matters including corporate governance and restructuring, charitable giving, program-related investing, international grantmaking, commercially driven mission activities, and other state and federal regulatory matters. From 2010 to 2011, Mr. Zarembly served as a Law Clerk to the Hon. José A. Cabranes of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. Prior to joining Patterson Belknap, Mr. Zarembly advised for-profit companies on complex commercial transactions and corporate governance matters at a New York-based law firm.

Education

- Yale Law School (J.D., 2010)
 - Book Reviews Editor, Yale Journal of Law and the Humanities
- Yale University (Ph.D., 2007)
- Yale College (B.A., with distinction, 2003)

Admissions

- New York

Professional Activities

Association of the Bar of the City of New York (Committee on Nonprofit Organizations, 2012-2015; Committee on Pro Bono and Legal Services, 2015-2018; Committee on Legal History, 2015-Present; Education and the Law Committee, 2018-Present)

American Bar Association (Exempt Organizations Committee)

Executive Committee, Yale Law School Association

Advisory Committee, Journal of College and University Law

Publications

- "Understanding the New Supporting Organization Proposed Regulations," Taxation of Exempts (September/October 2016) (With M. Bell)
- Legal Realism and American Law (2014)

Patterson Belknap

- Learned Hand's Two Concepts of (Judicial) Liberty, 65 Rutgers L. Rev. 787 (2013)
- Restating the Restatement of Conflicts: Approaching the Legitimacy Question in Choice-of-Law Theory, 45 Suffolk U. L. Rev. 67 (2011)
- Silent Dissent? Tacitus Against the Lawyers, 20 Yale J. L. & Human. 277 (2008)
- Directed Studies and the Evolution of American General Education (2006)